

Children on Library Premises

The Homewood Public Library encourages children of all ages to visit the Library with their parents to take advantage of the resources available for them to meet their informational, recreational, cultural, and educational needs. The responsibility for the child's health, safety, and behavior at the Library resides with the parent or guardian. Library staff are not responsible for the supervision of children visiting the Library. This policy applies to children of all ages who visit the Library.

Any child visiting the Library who has not yet entered the sixth grade must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Children under the age of seven must be accompanied and directly supervised at all times by a responsible adult. For the purpose of this policy, a responsible adult is the child's parent or a responsible person 16 years of age or older.

All children visiting the Library are expected to display only appropriate behavior. Persistent inappropriate behavior is grounds for suspension of library privileges. Disorderly conduct, fighting, harassment or any illegal activity will result in immediate suspension from the Library.

Children in sixth grade or above may visit the Library unattended, subject to the Library's Rules of Conduct and definition for appropriate behavior. All children must be picked up by the Library's closing time. If the child is not picked up by closing time, the Homewood police will be notified. Library staff will stay with the child until the police arrive. Under no circumstance will staff take children home. In case of a medical emergency, Library staff will call 911.
